

Ludmila Ulitskaya will be a guest of the 2015 Jerusalem Conference of Jewish Writers and Poets

The conference serves as a unique encounter among the finest Jewish writers and poets active around the globe today, as well as among the best Israeli authors writing in Hebrew, and in other languages. It is an encounter about characters and characteristics that emphasize the significance of Jewish culture in the life of the Jewish people. So far, there have been three such gatherings, in 2007, 2009 and 2013. These took place in Mishkenot Sha'ananim and Beit Avi Chai.

Ulitskaya's public appearances include:

- Familiar Story

26.11.15, 20:00-21:30

“Like a Shell without Pearls” – A Tribute to Mandelstam

Participants: Yaakov Biton, Liudmila Ulitskaya (Russia), Galina Zelenina (Russia) – recipient of the Matanel award. Hosted by (in English and Russian): Yuri Nesis

“In My Father’s Court” (Bashevis-Singer): The Jewish Family – Tale or Fiction

Introduction: David Rozenson, Director of Beit Avi Chai

Participants: Gabriela Avigur-Rotem, Gabi Gleichmann (Norway), Etgar Keret, Nava Semel, Liudmila Ulitskaya (Russia)

Hosted by: Liat Regev

Musical accompaniment: Mai Israeli – Vocals, Michal Salomon – Piano

- Discussions into the Boundaries of Language: Historical Extreme

26.11.15, 12:30-14:00

Hosted by: Prof. Roman Katsman

Participants: Prof. Hamutal Bar-Yosef, Yuri Nesis, , Victoria Reicher, Dennis Sobolev, Liudmila Ulitskaya (Russia), Mikhail Yudson, Galina Zelenina (Russia) – recipient of the Matanel award

